Redesign Playing Cards

Name: _____

Class Hour: _____
100 points possible

Criteria	Score	Comments
Cards: Must demonstrate attention to detail, effort, creativity, and mastery of software. All 4 cards must be redesigned (Jack, Queen, King, & Ace) (75 points)
Essay: In a brief 2 paragraph essay explain how you came up with your design ideas and explain what techniques you used. (15 points)
Final Product Finished product printed in color. All 4 cards must be printed on the same piece of paper in color. (10 points)
Total Points – 100

	A	B	C	D	F
Cards	All 4 cards are included and they are redesigned with original content. Final design could be used in a real deck of cards. They look like they belong.	All 4 cards are included and redesigned, but are not a finished project.	3 – 4 cards are included and redesigned and are mostly complete, but are missing the final details and finishing touches.	Missing more than 1 card and other cards are not completed.	No effort made to redesign cards. Ideas were stolen/plagiarized. Cards are not complete or there are 2 or fewer cards submitted.
Essay	2 paragraph (minimum of 5 sentences for each paragraph) description of project and design strategies, with proper spelling and grammar.	2 paragraph (less than 5 sentences each) description of project and design strategies, with 2-3 spelling and grammar mistakes.	Less than 2 paragraphs and 2-3 spelling or grammar errors.	Less than 2 paragraphs with more than 3 spelling or grammar errors.	Does not submit an essay or the essay has less than 1 paragraph or more than 3 spelling or grammar errors.
Final Product	All 4 cards are on 1 piece of paper printed in color and are finished.	All 4 cards are printed in color and are mostly complete.	3 cards are printed in color and are complete.	3 cards are printed in color and are mostly complete.	Project is incomplete and does not include at least 3 cards.